FORT PILLOW, Tenn., Nov. 29, 1862. EDITOR SEXT. SEL: As a member of the 52d regiment Indiana v lunteers, by your permission, desire to say a few things touching the deties of Chaplains of regiments. If I understand the Regulations touching the matter, it is their duty to preach the gospel to the oldiers as often as practicable and the circumstances will permit, visit them in camp, and speak to them concern ing their future welfare; and, when practicable, assist them in holding prayer meeting, encourage Weekly Sentinel. From and after December 8, 1862, the morality among the soldiers, and report to the headquarters of their respective regiments the moral condition of the same at stated times. Now, if I have a proper view of the matter, it places Chaplains under great responsibilty, if called of God as was Aaron Now, a minister of Jesus Christ is a chosen trumpet, and it is his duty to blow the same, and warn the people in time of danger. God, by the month of Ezekiel, We are now ready to do all kinds of plain and tells the watchman if he, seeeing the sword coming, and warn not the people, they shall be taken away in their miquity, but their blood will he required at the watchman's hand

Now, what I wish to say in this matter is this; There has been a great Tailure in our regiment of paper and cards, and we can do good and cheap by some one. We left the Capital of our State on the 7th of February last. Since then we have work. All kinds of books, briefs, catalogues, been sharing in the surrows and horrors of war and camp life, amidst the abominations common to wicked men. Now, in all this time we have We ask the patronage of Democrats, and all oth- heard six sermons from the man said to be the Chaplain of this regiment. Who is in fault-the Chaplain, the commander of the regiment, or the Government-I will not say. But certain it is, that we have been shamefully bored in this mat ter. Numbers of men in this regiment were once moral, and some religious; but, for the want of encouragement, the moral have become wicked, and the religious disheartened. When we call to mind the sanctuaries of the Lord that we left at our country's call, expecting amid all the perils of warrare to hear the Word of Life, and have our hearts encouraged, and that like a band or staff, has been appointed Lieutement Colonel of Christian soldiers we would fight the battles of our Lord and recruit some in the meantime; but we are sadiy disappointed, and feel grieved.
